Comments:

It was out with the old and in with the new for the 123 starters at the Fox and Hounds Chase Fell Race, first counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2023. The weather smiled today, the chill in the air had disappeared with sunshine, blue skies and temperatures nearer 20 degrees than 10 degrees and a gentle breeze. Start line discussion was more about keeping hydrated than keeping warm.

The Yorkshire Cycle Hub hosted registration for a second year for the Loftus and Whitby AC organised event led by Malcolm Peggs, thank you to all who supported the event.

The revised route post-covid stretches to 9.75 miles and around 1800' of climb, the previous day had seen the English Fell Championships race over the Fairfield Horseshoe route at 9 miles and 3000', two of competitors doubled up, regular Damian Kilpin Penistone Footpath Runners and regular visitor Darren Fishwick of Chorley, terrific effort both.

In the tale of the tape it was Daniel Bateson (v40) Scarborough AC who led from start to finish, with his only wrinkle a bit of navigational fun after just over half way in the area of the quarry. Second home was Dan Dunnington of Ryedale Triathlon Club followed in by Joe Leadley of Loftus and Whitby AC. Tim Grimwood (v40) Swaledale Runners fourth overall was first veteran outside the top three with the evergreen Paul Butler (v55) Scarborough AC seventh.

Catherine Williamson (v40) Loftus and Whitby AC was first women home in 10th overall just beaten by partner Rob Williamson (v55) also Loftus and Whitby in ninth.

Rhona Marshall (v40) Scarborough AC placed second with first under 40 woman Victoria Sewell of York Knavesmire Harriers in third.

In the teams competition Scarborough AC men eased to victory with Daniel and Paul supported by Paul Lawton and Matthew Jones. In the women's team it was the returning North Eastern raiders from North Shields Polytechnic, buoyed by team and individual prizes at Gisborough Moors who claimed the win. The team made up of the aptly aimed Molly Pace in fourth, Katherine Davis (1st v55) in fifth and Helen Heaney (1st v45) in eighth.

Presentations were also made (started!) to the Winter Series 2022/23 award winners and will continue in subsequent events, well done to Rhona Marshall who claimed the overall series win with Trudy Morrice Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers second. In the men's overall it was Daniel Bateson as champion and Steven Donaldson Esk Valley Fell Club as runner-up. Well done to all the age group and endurance winners.

Next event is the Glaisdale Fell Race on wednesday 31st May 2023, its SI Entries only for this event which is restricted to 100 entrants.
