Comments:

The Glaisdale Rigg May Fell Race, the third counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2025. As registration opened a few slate grey clouds scudded across the sky, and memory turned to 2024 when intermittent showers hit the finish of the race. As it was the evening stayed dry, mild and free of midges (at registration at least).

Race organiser was Adrian Martin of Silverback Trails, helpers were drawn from friends and the fell running community, a hearty thank you to you all. Our registration hosts was the Arncliffe Arms a public house with restaurant and rooms. To manage parking in the village, Adrian had limited entries to 100, with 82 turning up on the night and all finishing.

The fell race opens just opposite the pub, with a then an extended climb along the north side Glaisdale to the Glaisdale Rigg trig point some three miles away, the height gained is then lost in a short descent, runners then regain the height along the southern side of the valley, before descending a near mile long track to Glaisdale Beck and Arncliffe Woods, with legs jelly like competitors are then faced with a short sharp climb to the finish just beside the pub. Despite mostly dry weather for two months, boggy terrain was still present with a number of runners finding it.

The tale of the tape was a maiden fell race victory for Under 23 Sam Gunning of Vale of York, his victory by 2 minutes from a cluster of male seniors who finished within 20-odd seconds of each other; Hamish Carrick Durham Fell Runners, Andrew Armin Saltwell Harriers and Fergus Wood Esk Valley Fell Club. Fifth finisher was our first veteran Adrian Bushby (MV55) City of Hull AC.

Catherine Williamson (FV40) Loftus and Whitby AC claimed the female victory placing ninth overall, in a turn of form her partner Rob (MV60) also Loftus and Whitby, just pipped Cath by 12 seconds in seventh. Esther Harrison (FSEN) Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers followed up her victory at Bilsdale with runner-up spot, and Rose Kruger (FSEN) also Thirsk completed the podium. First veteran female outside the top three was Kate Stabbs (FV40) of Topley AC in fourth, and Michaela Welham (FV45) Loftus and Whitby AC, claimed fifth.

The team competitions, it was a win for Loftus and Whitby AC women and the men from York Knavesmire Harriers.

There were further awards for runner exploits in the Winter Series 2024/25, well done to all the recipients.

Next fell race in the summer series is the Lets Run organised Whorlton Run, just less than a week away on Wednesday 4th June 2025, registration from 17:45hrs in the Swainby Village Hall 30 High St, Swainby, DL6 3EG (What Three Words ///sues.bedrooms.relegate). Volunteers welcomed as marshals or at the finish.
