Comments:

The coastal climate is something of a wonder, inland the weather was warm and a touch humid, just in time for registration there was a distinct coastal chill in the air and the very lightest of mists, ideal for fell running, but maybe slightly the wrong side of comfortable for the volunteers and supporters. Though not far along the coast, Robin Hoods Bay now boasts a vineyard, English wine is an emerging force in the world and that now includes Yorkshire Wine.

The Ravenscar Rumble Revisited eighth counter of thirteen in the 2025 version of the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series. Registration was hosted (thank you) in the Ravenscar Tearooms, it was busy with 106 competitors signing up to participate.

Race Organiser was Robert Lillie, with support from his club Scarborough AC and the wider running community, thank all.

Returning to the weather, the long warm spring and summer with only brief rainy interludes, has meant that the offroad ground underfoot has been baked hard and dry, ideal for fast running, and so it was Robert Sparkes (MSEN) Beverley AC, eased to a race win and a new course record rounded to 38 minutes 19 seconds, surpassing Lee Kemp's 2024 mark by over a minute, terrific running.

Not often two Keswick AC runners feature in a North York Moors midweek fell race results sheet, its not easy to prise Lake District runners away from the Cumbrian home of the discipline. This was a bit of a cheat mind, Caroline Lambert (FSEN) with family in the area and Matt Jones (M45) still resident but not now in the AC of Scarborough. Caroline returning from an injury timeout, had a super run finishing in 44 minutes 49 seconds, just missing out on Catherine Williamson's 2024 record by 21 seconds (22 seconds to beat it!).

The second steps on the podium were taken by Rhona Marshall (F40) Scarborough AC and Sam Leadley (MSEN) Loftus and Whitby AC, with Hester Butterworth (F50) Scarborough AC and Lewis Suddaby (MSEN) East Hull Harriers AC rounding out the top threes. Ian Rowan (M45) Esk Valley Fell Club claimed the first male veteran place in sixth, and Fay Hethershaw (F50) Scarborough AC fourth making up the female threesome claiming the team prize. Loftus and Whitby AC placed second.

In the mens team competition it was Loftus and Whitby, with the younger and the older supporting Sam Leadley with eleventh placed Alexander Harrison-Gaze (MU23), twelfth placed Kealan Brion (MU23) and thirteenth placed Robert Williamson (M60). Keeping the overall competition close, York Knavesmire came in second followed by Esk Valley Fell Club third.

A donation from the race surplus will go to the National Trust and another deserving cause to be confirmed.

Next series event is the all new Langdale End Show (Fell) Race, on Sunday 17th August 2025 organised by Danny Walls also Scarborough AC, there is a show that opens to the public at 14:00hrs (exhibitors arrive earlier), the race starts at 13:30hrs, registration from around 12:00hrs. Helpers step forward please.
